Candidate for State Representative of House District 151 A Keynote Speaker at Youth Summit And Talent Show

DAWSON, Ga. (Jul. 8, 2022) — On Friday, candidate for House District 151 Joyce Barlow was the keynote speaker at a youth summit event in Dawson, Georgia. The summit, which was held for youth ages 17 and up, focused on encouraging attendees to register to vote and apply for college.

“The youth are our future and I will do my part to help them be as civically engaged as possible,” said Barlow. “I want them to both exercise their right to vote and take an interest in issues affecting their city, county, state, and country.”

In March of 2022, Barlow officially launched her campaign for Georgia House District 151, one of the most competitive districts in the state, on a pledge to work with leaders to make the region a place where everyone’s voice is heard.

With issues such as student debt, employment and healthcare impacting younger populations more than ever before, Joyce Barlow sees this as a crucial time for the youth to express their voice.

“We must continue to encourage our youth to be as active as they can be and listen to the changing policies that affect our lives.. Voting is the first step, but we must also work with them to organize, demonstrate and be engaged in our communities.”
